9. Guideline 2.3 (D) of the Guidelines for unaccredited Law School Rules provides

The method of instruction at this law school for the Juris Doctor (J.D.) degree program is principally by correspondence.

Students enrolled in the J.D. degree program at this law school who successfully complete the first year of law study must pass the First-Year Law Students' Examination required by Business and Professions Code § 6060(h) and Rule VIII of the Rules Regulating Admission to Practice Law in California as part of the requirements to qualify to take the California Bar Examination. A student who passes the First-Year Law Students' Examination within three (3) administrations of the examination after first becoming eligible to take it will receive credit for all legal studies completed to the time the examination is passed. A student who does not pass the examination within three (3) administrations of the examination after first becoming eligible to take it must be promptly disqualified from the law school's J.D. degree program. If the dismissed student subsequently passes the examination, the student is eligible for reenrollment in this law school's J.D. degree program, but will receive credit for only one year of legal study.

Study at, or graduation from, this law school may not qualify a student to take the bar examination or to satisfy the requirements for admission to practice in jurisdictions other than California. A student intending to seek admission to practice law in a jurisdiction other than California should contact the admitting authority in that jurisdiction for information regarding the legal education requirements in that jurisdiction for admission to the practice of law.

REFUND POLICY

Refund Information

The student has a right to a full (100%) refund of all monies paid, if student withdraws or cancels WITHIN 5 DAYS after midnight (Pacific Time zone) of date the Agreement was signed.

In addition, the student may withdraw from a course after instruction has started and receive a pro rata refund for the unused portion of the tuition and other refundable monies.

Example: a student pays $3,500 tuition plus a $50 registration fee and a $100 LexisNexis Membership fee, for a total payment of $3,650 for the 52 week program. If the student then decides to withdraw after 13 weeks, then the student would be entitled to a refund calculated in the following manner: 52 (total weeks of the program) - 13 (weeks of tuition used) = 39 (weeks of tuition that was paid but not used); $39 / 52 = .75$ or 75% (the percentage of the unused tuition to the full tuition); $3,650 (cost of tuition only, the application fee and the LexisNexis Membership fee are non-refundable fees) x .75 = $2,737.5; $2,737.5 would be the amount refunded to the student.

The period of given instruction is counted on a weekly basis, regardless of the actual day that a particular course begins. Each week starts every Sunday at 12:00am and ends on Saturday at 11:59pm (Pacific Time zone). If notice is received after a particular week starts, then, that week is counted as a week of given instruction.

If the school cancels a course, the school will make a full refund of all charges.

You may withdraw or cancel this agreement and receive a refund by providing notice to the Director of Admissions by either email sent to: admin@mdkirkschooloflaw.com, or sent by U.S.P.S. Certified Mail, addressed to:

Registrar

All refunds will be paid within thirty (30) days of cancellation or withdrawal and the student will receive a clear explanation of the method of calculation within thirty (30) days of cancellation or withdrawal.

This disclosure statement must be provided to each new student upon payment of an application fee, but before payment of a registration fee, and to each returning student, prior to payment of any fee for an academic term.
