AGREEMENT:

I acknowledge receipt of, and I have read, the School's catalog and disclosure statement. I, including but not limited to the following, understand that:

The method of instruction at this law school for the Juris Doctor (J.D.) degree program is principally by correspondence.

Students enrolled in the J.D. degree program at this law school who successfully complete the first year of law study must pass the First-Year Law Students' Examination required by Business and Professions Code § 6060(h) and Rule VIII of the Rules Regulating Admission to Practice Law in California as part of the requirements to qualify to take the California Bar Examination. A student who passes the First-Year Law Students' Examination within three (3) administrations of the examination after first becoming eligible to take it will receive credit for all legal studies completed to the time the examination is passed. A student who does not pass the examination within three (3) administrations of the examination after first becoming eligible to take it must be promptly disqualified from the law school's J.D. program. If the dismissed student subsequently passes the examination, the student is eligible for re-enrollment in this law school's J.D. degree program, but will receive credit for only one year of legal study.

Study at, or graduation from, this law school may not qualify a student to take the bar examination or to satisfy the requirements for admission to practice in jurisdictions other than California. A student intending to seek admission to practice law in a jurisdiction other than California should contact the admitting authority in that jurisdiction for information regarding to the legal education requirements in that jurisdiction for admission to the practice of law.

The school offers no classroom work since all work done through the School is done independently by the students.

The School's Non-Bar Law Study Program is completely self-paced.

The School's Bar Law Study Program (For those who wish to eventually practice law) is regulated by the California State Bar.

The Bar Study Program is not self-paced. It requires approximately 1,000 study hours per year to be completed during the period of not less than 48 weeks nor more than 52 weeks as required by California State Bar Regulations. It is the student's responsibility (and not the School's) to be sure that proper eligibility arrangements and registration to begin the Study of Law have been accomplished with the Bar of the State of California, or the Bar of any other jurisdiction (if applicable).

My graduation from the School's program is subject to the School's final receipt of Certified College Transcripts showing my college achievements to be as represented on my application for enrollment.

I may not assign the benefits of this contract to anyone else.

This contract shall be governed by the laws of the State of California.

Any tuition not submitted with this contract shall be the subject of an Installment Contract Addendum which is attached and incorporated here by reference.

I have the option to cancel this contract, and receive a full refund of all charges, less the amount of $100.00 for the application fee, during its initial term up to midnight of the eighth (8th) day after the mailing to me of my initial coursework by the school.

In addition, I may withdraw from a course after instruction has started and receive a pro rata refund for the unused portion of the tuition and other refundable charges if I have completed 60% or less of the instruction. For example, if I complete only 30 hours of a 120-hour course and paid $400.00 tuition, I would receive a refund of $300.00.
